

Fable Maker

Name: _____

Fables are crafty short stories that are designed to teach a lesson or moral. The characters are typically animals or insects and at the end of every fable there will be a moral or lesson stated. Follow this guide to help you as you create an original fable.

Characters

Choose two or more of the following creature characters to be in your fable. Remember that many times the characters contrast greatly.

monkey	cat	elephant	dog	cow	dolphin
donkey	deer	turtle	rabbit	turkey	squirrel
octopus	giraffe	stork	spider	chicken	ant
duck	gorilla	fish	dragon	lion	whale
chipmunk	tiger	bear	elk	fly	shark

Moral/Lesson

Now, decide on a moral or lesson that you'd like to teach or convey within your fable. Check out the samples below. List 3 possible choices.

Ex. Never judge a friend by their size.

Ex. Pride brings destruction

Ex. Always lend a helping hand.

Ex. Think before you speak

Moral: a lesson that is learned through experience

Moral/lesson #1 _____

Moral/lesson #2 _____

Moral/lesson #3 _____

Setting

Setting: place where a story takes place

Decide where you want your fable to take place. Your setting should help drive your story.

Setting:
