

Weather questions to prepare for test

Review the vocabulary words.

Be able to name something specific about each layer of the atmosphere.

List the states of the formation of a thunderstorm.

Review the chart we made in class about the different types of breezes (when they form, and where they form).

Know the different tools used to record the weather.

Know the differences between trade winds and planetary winds.

Why are predictions about weather not accurate?