

My name is Pat McGraw, and I've been the librarian at Linfield for 13 years. I am originally from Detroit, Michigan. I graduated from Eastern Michigan University where I studied Library Science.

I have been married for 37 years to my husband Paul, and we have three children and three grandchildren.

Colin, our oldest son, is a web developer for an advertising agency. He and his wife Katie are parents to two beautiful little girls, and a brand new baby boy.

Peter, our middle son, is a lawyer. He lives and works in McAllen, Texas. He also plays guitar and piano in a band that's quite popular in the Austin, Texas area!

Molly, our youngest, is a behavior therapist with Temecula Valley Therapy Services.

My husband Paul spent 27 years on active duty with the Marine Corps. When he retired 10 years ago, he began a life of volunteering. He has worked with Trauma Intervention, is the president of the board of directors of a local charter school, and serves on the board of The Soldier's Project, which provides free mental health services to veterans. We are both active in our church, St. Martha's in Murrieta.

As for me, I guess you can see that I derive my joy in life from my family!

I don't have a lot of spare time, but occasionally I steal a few hours to do some sewing and quilting, and I enjoy doing projects around the house and yard. I love dogs, books, and coffee.

I'm looking forward to this school year, and to sharing great books with your children.

God bless you always!
