

Hi Linfield Christian School!

I am beyond thrilled to start this year at Linfield! I feel tremendously blessed to be part of a community with such a deep passion for preparing even the youngest student for college, an uncompromising commitment to truth, and a genuine love for one another. From those things, a profound legacy has been built and I am truly honored to be a part of it.

I have been dedicated to the ministry of children and Christian education for more than seventeen years. I started my career as a preschool teacher's aide right out of high school, and continue to benefit from being mentored early on by inspired, Godly women and innovative teachers. After finishing my bachelor's degree in 2001, those same preschool teachers encouraged me to take all that they had taught me and apply it to elementary education. I taught fifth grade for nearly eight years before finishing my master's degree in faith-based school administration at California Baptist University in 2010, and started serving as an elementary principal shortly thereafter.

My husband, Kevin, and I have been married for seventeen years and have two sons, Garret and Jacob, both of which attend Linfield Christian School. Garret is 14 years old and is in the eighth grade, while Jacob is 12 years old and will be starting seventh grade.

I hope as you meet each member of Linfield's elementary team, you are as blessed to meet them as I am to serve alongside them each day. We are truly excited about what God is doing on our campus and in the lives of our students and families!

Praying for you already,

Carrie Washburn
